4 -- --- --

5 THE CLERK OF THE COURT: Please rise. The United 6 States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan is 7 now in session, the Honorable Mark Goldsmith presiding. You
8 may be seated.

9 The Court calls 16-20654, United States of America
10 versus Phillip McIntyre. Counsel, please place your 11 appearances on record.

12 MS. WILLIAMS: Good afternoon, your Honor. Jihan
13 Williams appearing on behalf of the United States.

14 MS. STOUT: Good afternoon, your Honor. Kimberly
15 Stout on behalf Phillip McIntyre who's seated to my left.

16 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon. How are we 17 going to proceed today?

18 MS. STOUT: Your Honor, my client is prepared to 19 enter a plea pursuant to a Rule 11 Plea Agreement.

20 THE COURT: All right. Let's have the defendant
21 sworn in.

22 THE CLERK OF THE COURT: Can you please raise your
23 right hand the best that you can? Thank you. Do you solemnly
24 swear or affirm under penalty of perjury that the testimony
25 you're about to give in the case now pending before the Court

1 shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

3 THE COURT: All right. Everybody can be seated.

4 Mr. McIntyre, before we proceed any further I want to advise
5 you of three things. First, you've taken an oath to tell the 6 truth so you do have to give me truthful answers to my
7 questions. If you give me any answers that are intentionally
8 untrue, you can be prosecuted for perjury and if you're 9 convicted of that offense, you'd be sentenced for that 10 separately from any sentence that you may receive for the 11 matter that brings you to court this afternoon. Do you
12 understand that?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: Second preliminary point is you have an 15 attorney seated right next to you. If you need to speak with 16 her at any point during this proceeding, you're free do that 17 and if you need some private area in which to meet with her,
18 we'll make that available to you as well. Do you understand
19 that?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: The final preliminary point I want to 22 make is that even though it's been announced that it is your
23 intention to plead guilty, you are under no obligation to plead
24 guilty. If at any time during this proceeding this afternoon
25 you decided you do not want to plead guilty, just let me know

1 that. We will stop this plea-taking and your current plea of
2 not guilty will remain in effect and then your case will be
3 brought to trial. Do you understand that?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

5 THE COURT: What is your full name, please?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Phillip Lucky McIntyre.

7 THE COURT: What is your date of birth?

8 THE DEFENDANT: November 30th, 1984.

9 THE COURT: Can you read, write and understand the 10 English language?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Can you hear and understand me?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Could you hear and understand your
15 attorney?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Are you satisfied with the advice your
18 attorney's given you?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

20 THE COURT: How far did you get in school?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Umm, I got into, finished -- I got my 22 G.E.D. in the state penitentiary, but I finished school at the 23 level of 10th grade. Ninth, 10th grade.

24 THE COURT: How long ago did you get your G.E.D.?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Umm, 2008 I believe.

1 THE COURT: Are you under the influence of any drugs
2 or alcohol or medication?

3 THE DEFENDANT: As of right now, no.

4 THE COURT: Have you ever been treated for addiction
5 to any of those things?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Marijuana.

7 THE COURT: How long ago were you treated for that?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Umm, a while. Not since -- are you
9 asking me have I -- can you rephrase the question for me 'cause
10 I kind of misunderstood it.

11 THE COURT: All right. Have you been in a treatment
12 program for marijuana?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Not -- no, no.

14 THE COURT: When is the last time you had some 15 marijuana?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Umm, probably the day before I got 17 locked up or --

18 THE COURT: What day was that?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Umm, September 19th.

20 THE COURT: Of 2016?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: And you haven't had any since; is that 23 right?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Do you understand that you're charged in

1 count one of the indictment with sex trafficking of a child?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

3 THE COURT: That is violation of a statute known as
4 Title 18 United States Code, section 1591(a) and carries
5 certain penalties upon conviction. The statute provides for a
6 minimum penalty of 10 years and a maximum penalty of life in 7 prison. Do you understand that?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

9 THE COURT: The statute also provides for the 10 possibility of a fine up to 250,000 dollars. Do you understand
11 that?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

13 THE COURT: The statute also provides for a minimum
14 period of five years of supervised release, up to the 15 possibility of a lifetime term of supervised release. Do you
16 understand that?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Just so we're clear, supervised release
19 has replaced parole which has been abolished in our federal 20 criminal justice system. Supervised release means that after 21 you've served your prison term, you are released back to the 22 community where you have to obey certain rules. If you violate
23 any of those rules you can be sent back to prison to serve
24 additional time. Do you understand all of that?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Did you discuss your case fully with your
2 attorney?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Did you ask her all the questions wanted
5 you to about your case?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Did she answer all of your questions to
8 your satisfaction?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Do you need any more time now to talk to 11 her about your case?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Can I have just a few questions with 13 her?

14 THE COURT: You can have as many questions as you
15 want. Go right ahead.

16 (Pause)

17 MS. STOUT: I believe we're ready to proceed, your 18 Honor. This has been difficult because of the nature of the 19 offense of course and the time involved, but I think my client
20 understands and is prepared to go forward.

21 THE COURT: Mr. McIntyre, do you need to ask your 22 attorney anymore questions?

23 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

24 THE COURT: Do you want to proceed with this guilty
25 plea-taking?

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Did you discuss with your attorney your
3 decision whether or not to plead guilty in this case?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Did you ask her all the questions you
6 wanted to on that subject?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Did she answer all those questions to
9 your satisfaction?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Do you want to ask her anymore questions
12 about that subject right now?

13 THE DEFENDANT: No.

14 THE COURT: I've been given a document called a Rule
15 11 Plea Agreement. Do you have a copy there with you at your 16 table?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Do you understand that this document
19 purports to be the agreement between you and the government
20 regarding your decision to plead guilty in this case?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Did you read this document?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Did you go over it carefully?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Did you go over it with your attorney?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Did you ask her all the questions you
4 wanted to about this document?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Do you need any more time now to ask her
7 any questions about this document?

8 THE DEFENDANT: No.

9 THE COURT: Now I'm looking at the last page, that's
10 page 13 and I see a signature line for Phillip Lucky McIntyre
11 and I see a signature there. Did you sign this document?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Did you sign it after you had read it?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Right above that signature there is a
16 statement that says by signing below, defendant acknowledges
17 that he has read or been read this entire document, understands
18 it and agrees to its terms. Do you understand all of that?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Did anybody force you to sign this 21 document?

22 THE DEFENDANT: No.

23 THE COURT: Did anybody threaten you or members of 24 your family to get you to sign it?

25 THE DEFENDANT: No.

1 THE COURT: Did you sign it out of your own free
2 will?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Did anybody make any promises to you to 5 get you to sign this document other than whatever promises are 6 contained in the document?

7 THE DEFENDANT: No.

8 THE COURT: I want to go over the document with you
9 to make sure you do understand it and if you do have questions
10 at any time, you are free to ask your attorney anything you
11 want about this. It says on the first page of the Rule 11 Plea
12 Agreement that you're going to plead guilty to count one of the 13 indictment which charges with you sex trafficking of a child.
14 Do you understand that?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

16 THE COURT: On the second page there's a section
17 called elements of offense. Those are the different parts of 18 the crime that the government has to prove against you beyond a 19 reasonable doubt. Do you understand that?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

21 THE COURT: The first element of this crime, first
22 part of this crime that the government would have to prove 23 beyond a reasonable doubt is that you knowingly recruited or
24 enticed or harbored or transported or provided or obtained a
25 person that you knew was a person who was less than 18 years

1 old. Did you understand that?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

3 THE COURT: The second element is that you knew that
4 the person would be caused to engage in a commercial sex act.
5 Do you understand that?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

7 THE COURT: And then the final element of this crime
8 is that the defendant's act of recruiting, enticing, harboring,
9 transporting, providing or obtaining was in or affecting
10 interstate commerce. Do you understand that?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Do you think the government can prove all
13 of these elements against you beyond a reasonable doubt?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Right below that section on page two and
16 carrying over to page three is a section entitled factual basis
17 for guilty plea. Do you see that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Did you read this section carefully?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I did.

21 THE COURT: Are all the statements in this section
22 true?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Double government can proof all these 25 statements true against you beyond a reasonable doubt?

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

2 THE COURT: It says here that from on or about May 1,
3 2016 to May 24, 2016 here in the Eastern District of Michigan
4 that you recruited, enticed, harbored, transported, provided
5 and obtained a certain person identified as MV1, a child known
6 to you who was born in 2002 and you knew that she was not yet
7 18 years old and you knew that she would be caused to engage in 8 a commercial sex act. Is all that true?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

10 THE COURT: And it says here that this was done in or 11 affecting interstate or foreign commerce. Is all that true?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Goes on to say that you assisted and 14 provided communications by way of a cell phone or 15 transportation by vehicle, images to be used on backpage.com
16 for advertising commercial sex acts, hotel rooms, assistance
17 and protection for MV1 and that this was all done for purposes
18 of her engaging in a commercial sex act. Is that true?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Now this Rule 11 Plea Agreement provides
21 for sentencing in a way that will cap the sentence that you
22 would be receiving so I want you to understand what our
23 sentencing procedures will be. If I accept your guilty plea, I
24 will set a sentencing date in the future. We will also order a
25 presentence investigation report to be prepared. You and your

1 attorney will have input into the report. If there's anything
2 you disagree about in terms of the contents of that report,
3 your attorney will lodge an objection and then I'll rule on the 4 objection.

5 At the sentencing hearing, your attorney will speak
6 on your behalf. You can directly address the Court if you want
7 to. I'll hear from the attorney for the government, I'll hear
8 from any victims and then based on what everybody tells me and
9 based on what's in the report and taking into account
10 everything the law says I'm supposed to take into account, I'm 11 going sentence you at or sentencing hearing. Do you understand 12 all of that?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

14 THE COURT: One of the things that the law tells me
15 to take into account is sentencing guidelines. Do you
16 understand that?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Have you gone over the sentencing
19 guidelines with your attorney and how they impact your case?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Do you understand that sentencing
22 guidelines are advisory and not mandatory. That means I do not 23 have to follow them. I can impose a sentence that is higher or 24 lower or within the guideline range?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

1 THE COURT: This Rule 11 Plea Agreement says that you
2 and the government have no disputes regarding your sentencing
3 guidelines and that you and the government agree that your
4 guideline range is 151 months to 188 months of imprisonment.
5 You understand that?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Now the agreement also notes that your
8 guideline range can go up under certain circumstances. That
9 is, it could be higher than the 151 to 188 range. Do you
10 understand that?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

12 THE COURT: It can go up if your criminal history
13 category turns out to be higher than what is reflected on the 14 worksheets that are attached to this Rule 11 Plea Agreement.
15 Do you understand that?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

17 THE COURT: That guideline range can go up also if
18 your offense level is higher and your offense level can go up
19 for a variety of reasons. For example, if you make a false
20 statement or withhold information from probation or if you
21 obstruct justice or commit another offense or otherwise
22 demonstrate a lack of acceptance of responsibility, any of 23 those things could cause your guideline range to go up higher
24 than 151 to 188 and then that higher range becomes the agreed
25 range between you and the government. Do you understand that?

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

2 THE COURT: The agreement also says that the relevant
3 conduct that may be used in sentencing includes everything that
4 is set out in all the counts of the indictment. In other
5 words, not being limited to just count one. Do you understand
6 that?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

8 THE COURT: This Rule 11 Plea Agreement says that if
9 I accept the agreement, that your sentence will not be higher
10 than the top of the guideline as determined under the 11 agreement. Do you understand that?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

13 THE COURT: So that means that if the guidelines stay
14 at 151 to 188, then my sentence will not be higher than 188,
15 but if your guidelines go up for any of the reasons I just 16 explained to you, then whatever that higher number would be,
17 that would be the highest sentence I could impose on you. Do
18 you understand that?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Now the agreement also says that whatever
21 sentence I impose must be at least 120 months. Do you
22 understand that?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

24 THE COURT: The agreement also says that I must 25 impose a term of at least five years of supervised release, but

1 that there is no agreement between you and the government
2 regarding the maximum amount of time I could impose for
3 supervised release above five years. Do you understand that?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

5 THE COURT: The agreement also says that you will pay
6 the special assessment of 5,000 dollars before sentence is 7 imposed. Do you understand that?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

9 THE COURT: The agreement also says there's no
10 agreement as to fines and fines are considered separate from 11 special assessment. Do you understand all of that?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

13 THE COURT: The agreement also says that the Court
14 shall order restitution to every identifiable victim of your 15 offense and there's no agreement regarding the amount of 16 restitution so it will be up to the Court to make that 17 determination at a later date. Do you understand all that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

19 THE COURT: This agreement also has a provision for 20 forfeiture of any property that you have that was used or 21 intended to be used to commit or promote the commission of the 22 offense charged against you. Do you understand that?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

24 THE COURT: And by forfeiture, I mean you would be 25 giving up whatever ownership or possessory interest you have in

1 the property that I just described. Do you understand that?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

3 THE COURT: This agreement provides for a limited
4 right to withdraw. That is, to get out from this agreement.
5 The government may withdraw from this agreement if I determine
6 that the correct guideline range is different than what the 7 agreement says it is. Do you understand that?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

9 THE COURT: The agreement says that you may withdraw
10 from the agreement and withdraw your guilty plea under one
11 circumstance only and that's if I decide to impose a sentence
12 that is higher than what is allowed under this agreement. Do
13 you understand that?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Now if I decided to do that, I would tell
16 you that at sentencing that that's my intention and then you
17 would have a decision to make. You could withdraw from the 18 agreement and withdraw your guilty plea and then go to trial or 19 you can decide that you wanted to maintain your guilty plea in 20 which case I could sentence you to whatever the law allows me
21 to sentence to you even if that's a sentence that's higher than 22 what's allowed under this agreement. Do you understand that?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

24 THE COURT: This agreement provides for something
25 called appeal waivers. That means giving up certain appellate

1 rights. You are waiving, that is giving up any rights you have
2 to appeal your conviction. Do you understand that?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

4 THE COURT: It says you are also giving up your right
5 to appeal any sentence so long as the sentence doesn't exceed
6 the maximum allowed under this agreement. Do you understand
7 that?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

9 THE COURT: If the sentence that I impose is within 10 the guideline range, then the government is agreeing not to 11 appeal any such sentence, but it does retain the right to 12 appeal any sentence below that range. Do you understand that?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

14 THE COURT: The agreement says that you are not
15 giving up your right to claim ineffective assistance of counsel
16 provided you follow the proper procedure for asserting that 17 right. Do you understand that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Do you have any questions about this 20 agreement?

21 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Do you understand that what you're
23 pleading guilty to is a felony?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

25 THE COURT: When a person pleads guilty to a felony,

1 that person loses valuable civil rights including the right to
2 vote, hold public office, sit on a jury or own or possess
3 firearms. Do you understand that?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

5 THE COURT: By pleading guilty, you're giving all the
6 rights you would have by going to trial so I'm going to go over
7 those rights that you're giving up and again if there's 8 anything you don't understand, you need to stop me so that you
9 can ask your attorney any questions about the rights that I'm 10 describing for you now.

11 First, you have the right to plead not guilty and to 12 persist in a not guilty plea throughout those proceedings. Do
13 you understand that?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: If you pled not guilty, then we would 16 have a jury trial. Do you understand that?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

18 THE COURT: And the jury would be the ones to decide,
19 not me, they would decide whether or not the government had 20 proven its case against you beyond a reasonable doubt. Do you
21 understand that?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

23 THE COURT: At trial you would be presumed innocent.
24 You would have no burden whatsoever. The only burden would be
25 on the government and its burden would be to prove you guilty

1 beyond a reasonable doubt. Do you understand that?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

3 THE COURT: At trial and at every other stage of this
4 criminal proceeding you would have the right to the assistance
5 of an attorney and if you could not afford one, I would appoint
6 one for you. Do you understand that?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

8 THE COURT: At trial you would have the right to see
9 and hear all the witnesses against you. Your attorney would 10 have the provide to cross-examine those witnesses. You'd have 11 the right to testify if you wanted to. You'd have the right to 12 decline to testify if you didn't want to. You'd have the right
13 to call witnesses on your own behalf and if those witnesses
14 would not come into court voluntarily, then you could use
15 Court's subpoena powers to compel those witnesses to come into 16 court to testify. Do you understand that?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Do you understand that if you decided not
19 to testify or put on any evidence or call any witnesses, that 20 those facts could not be used against you?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Do you understand that by pleading guilty
23 if I accept that plea, there will be no trial of any kind?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Do you understand you will have given up

1 all these rights that I just listed for you?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Do you understand that if you are not a
4 United States citizen, then by being convicted of this crime,
5 you may be removed from the United States, denied citizenship
6 and denied admission into the United States in the future?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Before I ask the defendant how he wishes
9 to plead, are there any additional questions either counsel
10 wants me to put to him?

11 MS. WILLIAMS: Not from the government, thank you.

12 MS. STOUT: No, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Williams, is there any 14 victim of this offense who wishes to make a statement at this 15 time?

16 MS. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, not at this time.

17 THE COURT: Mr. McIntyre, I'm going to ask you now
18 how you wish to plead in this case, guilty or not guilty?

19 THE DEFENDANT: I plead guilty.

20 THE COURT: Are you pleading guilty because you
21 believe you are guilty?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

23 THE COURT: And are you pleading guilty to count one
24 of the indictment which charges you with sex trafficking of a
25 child in violation of Title 18 United States Code, Section

1 1591(a)?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.

3 THE COURT: Based on the defendant's testimony here
4 in open court, I make the following findings. I do find that
5 he's fully competent and capable of entering an informed plea,
6 that he's aware of the nature of the charge and the 7 consequences of the plea. I find that his guilty plea is 8 knowingly made and voluntarily made and that it is supported by 9 an independent basis in fact containing each of the essential
10 elements of the offense.

11 I accept his guilty plea. I am taking the Rule 11
12 Plea Agreement under advisement so he's now adjudged guilty of 13 count one of the indictment, sex trafficking of a child.

14 I'm going to go order that the presentence
15 investigation report be prepared. Defendant and his counsel
16 will have input into the report. We will now set a sentencing
17 date.

18 THE CLERK OF THE COURT: September 12th at 11:30 a.m.

19 THE COURT: Does that work for everybody?

20 MS. WILLIAMS: Yes, your Honor.

21 MS. STOUT: Yes, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Okay. That's going to be our sentencing
23 date.

24 MS. STOUT: Your Honor, if I may add something for 25 the record, please?

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MS. STOUT: Thank you. Your Honor, this plea as you
3 stated is accurate and correct and nothing that I say is 4 changing this. I just simply want to make the Court aware that
5 on June 13th, we do have a proffer scheduled and we're hopeful
6 that there will be a cooperation agreement and perhaps a 5K1.1
7 to follow should that June 13th meeting and thereafter be
8 successful. I simply want that on the record. Obviously it's 9 not agreed to as of today. It's pending.

10 THE COURT: All right. Now that's not a promise of 11 any kind that bears on this Rule 11 Plea Agreement, is it?

12 MS. STOUT: No it's not, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Is there anything else?

14 MS. STOUT: No, your Honor.

15 MS. WILLIAMS: No, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. Then that concludes our 17 hearing. Thank you.

18 MS. STOUT: Thank you.
